Asheville Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Asheville, N. C., August 2.—Asheville people were greatly surprised last week to learn of the marriage of S. Spears Reynolds and Mrs. W. H. Cooper at Memphis the early part of the week. Mrs. Cooper has been visiting in Memphis for several weeks, and Mr. Reynolds left Asheville for that city apparently on a business trip.

Immediately after his arrival in the Tennessee city the ceremony was performed, although it was kept a secret until the return of the couple to this city. Mrs. Cooper is well known in Asheville, and has many friends here.

Mr. Reynolds is one of the city's most prominent young attorneys. He was formerly judge of the City Police Court.

In honor of Miss Mary Louise Manning, of Durham, who is visiting Miss Hortense Jones, a number of charming social affairs have been given here within the past few weeks. Miss Byrd Henderson entertained at a five hundred party on Thursday night, at which a number of members of the younger set of Asheville were present.

The home was beautifully decorated with pink and white sweet peas. Another five hundred party was given in honor of Miss Manning Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Meares. The house was tastefully decorated with ferns and potted plants.

Miss Manning was presented with the souvenir prize, a beautiful enamel beauty pin. The first prize was won by Miss Margaret Miller.

The Sigma Phi chapter, given in honor of Miss Manning, in the ballroom of the Swannanoa Hotel on the night of Thursday, August 3, was a decided success.
